Oath of Confidentiality

A Commitment to client, staff and DAWN confidentiality is a fundamental part of ensuring both safety and privacy. Signature on the Oath acknowledges an understanding of and an agreement with all of DAWN's policies and procedures relating to client, staff, volunteer, Board member and agency confidentiality. Furthermore, it constitutes a pledge not to breach these policies and an understanding that any violation will be considered actionable.

All information regarding past and present clients or service recipients of DAWN is confidential. No information can be given to any individual, group or organization to indicate whether or not any individual is, or has been, a client or service recipient at DAWN. Any requests for client information should be directed to the Program Manager or an Agency Director. A standard letter of verification that includes no service or confidential detail, along with a signed authorization by the client may be provided on behalf of a client. Past or present clients or other service recipients will not be discussed in a manner which may lead to the identification of individuals.

The locations of DAWN's service sites are confidential due to safety reasons. No information shall be provided to any person, group or organization which would disclose the location of any DAWN confidential service site, except in accordance with appropriate procedures devised for this purpose and based upon specific locations. It can, however, be acknowledged that all of the agency's service locations are in South King County.

No confidential files, records or other materials shall be transported to any location outside of DAWN's offices without the approval of a Program Manager or Agency Director. Confidential materials include, but are not limited to client files, all financial related documents, personnel and donor records, and any other proprietary information. All confidential materials shall be locked up when not in use and every effort shall be made to minimize the amount of time they are kept unsecured. Furthermore, no information related to these materials shall be divulged to any person, group or organization without the approval of an Agency Director.

Addresses and home telephone numbers of all staff, volunteers and Board members are confidential and cannot be given to any person, group or organization, including clients. Last names of staff, except the Agency Directors, shall not be shared with the public or with clients. Staff lists and rosters shall not be circulated internally or externally without the consent of the Human Resources Director.

I have read and agree to uphold all DAWN policies relating to confidentiality.
