

Training Opportunities

One-Time Session: "What is Domestic Violence?"

Duration 1-hour presentation + up to 1 hour for logistics preparation

Virtual (Zoom or Teams) Free

In-Person $100

This introductory session provides an overview of domestic violence and its impact, DAWN's services, and available community resources. Virtual sessions are offered free of charge as part of DAWN's commitment to community awareness.

One-Time Training: "Intro to Domestic Violence and How to Support Survivors"

Duration 2-hour presentation including Q&A + up to 1 hour for logistics preparation

Virtual $300

In-Person $400

Additional Prep $50 per hour beyond the initial hour

Available in English and Spanish

Training Code: Virtual: 2HT-V | In-Person: 2HT-P

This training offers a deeper exploration of domestic violence dynamics, survivor support strategies, case scenarios, and community resources. Our DAWN facilitator tailors the content to your organization's specific needs and questions.

Domestic Violence Institute (DVI) Certification Training

Schedule Offered twice yearly — Spring and Fall cohorts (dates vary)

Duration 24 hours — meets WAC 388-61A-1080 requirements

Format Hybrid — 2 in-person sessions + 6 virtual sessions via Zoom

Sessions Tuesdays and Thursdays, 4:00 PM – 7:00 PM over four weeks

Cost $350 per person

Group Rate Contact us for group pricing for 10 or more participants

Training Code: DVI24H

The DAWN Domestic Violence Institute is a comprehensive certification course designed for advocates, allied professionals, and community members who want to deepen their knowledge of domestic violence advocacy. Topics include the history of the DV movement, empowerment-based advocacy, legal and medical systems, cultural humility, safety planning, and more. Spots are limited — contact us to be added to the registration list.

To register or inquire about any of our training courses, contact:

Elba Moreira, Director of Programs | elba@dawnrising.org